Invitation to business lunch

You are warmly invited for lunch at St. Clara Church in Stockholm this fall.
We offer four Thursdays – on 14th October, 11th and 25th November and 9th December.

Situated right in the heart of Stockholm, it is only appropriate that for decades St. Clara Church has focused heavily on making Stockholm City a better and safer place to work and live in.

Since 1989, our work has helped thousands of people – especially the homeless, prostitutes and criminal leavers - get back onto their feet and to readjust back into society with support. We have so many wonderful success stories of people who have been given a second chance of life through our social work.

Some of the things we provide daily – food distribution, a place to sleep, courses to attend, a monthly lawyer to help with any social problems, summer camps for families who cannot afford to go on holiday. All of this is made possible through donations to the Church, grants and the generous help of volunteers. St. Clara Church is a part of the Swedish Church but since it is organised as an independent association, it is not funded by the Church taxes. Therefore the Church relies solely only on private donations.

We are a small group of entrepreneurs who are involved in the work of St. Clara Church. We use #lovethyneighbour #älskadingranne #claravintern to help raise money to continue the Church's wonderful efforts and to reach out even more to the most vulnerable in society. Due to corona, this past year the Church has seen unprecedented demand for people in need. Additionally we have seen a huge decrease of grant funding and other institutional funding, thus we are financially in need now more than ever.

In addition to a delicious lunch in a beautiful environment, you will hear how some lives have changed through the work of St. Clara Church. We look forward to meeting you and finding out whether you can help us to help others.
